Gardendale Leadership Academy is a six-month leadership program offered in Gardendale, Alabama. Meetings are once a month (will not meet in December), and sessions focus on local government, business and economic development, investing in future generations, and building community. As part of the program, each participant will be assigned a mentee from the local high school to work with throughout the program.

Objectives

1. Equip emerging leaders with basic leadership skills.
2. Increase understanding of local government.
3. Increase awareness of issues and opportunities facing the community.
4. Provide a broader understanding of resources available in the area through exposure to existing agencies, institutions, and community leaders.
5. Utilize teamwork, decision-making and problem-solving skills to identify a team project aimed at benefitting the community.
6. Establish lasting relationships with other leaders.
7. Maintain an active network of informed, qualified, and concerned alumni.
